Reese's girl loses a tooth

Proud mama Reese Witherspoon couldn't wait to share the news that her adorable daughter, Ava, had lost one of her front teeth! The Oscar-nominee got on the cell phone immediately after her 6-year-old showed off her holey smile and handed over the tooth to Mom. Wonder how much the tooth fairy left for little Ava? And don't worry about tooth decay, by the way — that soda Ava's clutching is the hot Izze brand, which is made from 100 percent fruit juice.
